

Learn how to shine as a leader.

The Sodexo Future Leaders Internship Program offers an exciting opportunity for college students to turn their leadership potential into valuable professional experience and to get a head start on their careers.

The mission of the Sodexo Future Leaders Internship Program is to provide world-class professional development opportunities to college students that result in organization-wide position placements.

The Future Leaders Internship Program provides outstanding exposure to the contract management services industry. Interns are encouraged and expected to make an impact immediately. Interns will learn the power of diversity, peer support and excellent client service.

What Interns Like about Sodexo

“The constant variety and change of job function were great for receiving a comprehensive overview.”

“Interaction with people who already have their degree and learning what they have to say about life after college.”

For consideration, please submit the following:

1. Your current resume
2. A 250-word essay that addresses the following questions:
 - What type of internship are you seeking?
 - Why are you seeking an internship with Sodexo?
 - What do you hope to gain from the internship?
3. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member

E-mail your resume, essay and letter of recommendation to internships@sodexo.com.

Sodexo Future Leaders Internship Program

Making every day a better day

Unique Features

To enhance your experience both during and after an internship, this unique program includes five major components.

Managers Engaging Nurturing & Training Our Recruits (MENTOR) Program: You'll be paired with one of our middle or senior-level managers, representing a variety of culturally diverse backgrounds and career interests. This relationship will continue through the duration of your college career and beyond.

Orientation: Your experience begins with a program kickoff that will introduce you to Sodexo and give you the opportunity to connect with your MENTOR, corporate staff and other interns.

Professional Development: Learning resources include one-hour webinars covering such topics as employee networks, getting the most out of your MENTOR relationship, negotiating a job offer, post-college career strategies and more.

Ending Celebration: At the program's completion, you'll celebrate lessons learned and set the stage for future strategic engagement with Sodexo.

Strategic Engagement: As a former intern, you may be: invited to serve on the Future Leaders Internship Program Planning Committee; asked to represent the company on campus as a Sodexo Ambassador; or featured in the campus relations e-newsletter.

Choose Your Internship

At Sodexo, you can choose to apply your talent and ambition toward becoming a leader in a variety of settings.

Whichever you choose, you'll learn how to lead and motivate your team to provide exceptional service to guests, clients, patients or even the U.S. Marine Corps! You'll also experience firsthand the importance of fostering the development of all team members through mentoring, and you'll see the benefits of our unmatched nationwide network of support.
